Foreword

With our school days at their close, we pause to look back upon the friends and the happiness we have had. Our last year has been one filled with many experiences which we shall never forget. The joys, the sorrows, the hopes, the dreams, the fun, and the hard work - these are all parts of our memories.

We, the 1962 Pirateer Staff, hope that this annual will become one of your most prized possessions. Even though time may lengthen these shadows, we hope that when you look over the faded snapshots, you will remember the good old days at L. H. S.

Dedication

Miss Elizabeth Shaw

Her ideal is the development of students through education. To those of us who have had the privilege of learning under her, she symbolizes the meaning of the word STUDY. Through her untiring efforts as an algebra teacher, she has helped to give Lumberton High School one of the best math departments in the state. As we look back in years to come, we shall say that she was one of the main influences in the building of our characters.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we wish to express our heartfelt gratitude for your devotion and unfaltering leadership by dedicating this, our 1962 PIRATEER, to you, Miss Elizabeth Shaw.

French

Parlez-vous francais? If not, you are in dangerous territory, for this is how Mrs. Stephens persuades you to learn. Between executions, the French classes learn dialogues, do exercises, make projects, and read parallel. One thing that every French student has really learned is a new appreciation for good ole English.

Latin

How does this exclusive portrait of the elite of Roman society happen to be gracing our publication? These Latin classes are relaxing from their labors. Under Mrs. Farmer's skillful guidance, these students are truely reviving the language of the ancients.

Chemistry

Accepting the challenge of present-day trends in education, the science department, with its courses in general science, biology, chemistry, and physics, creates enthusiasm and interest in contemporary achievements and stimulates the thinking of students to pursue a scientific profession.

Biology

D. E.

Distributive education provides unlimited opportunities for those not planning to attend college. Students are able to obtain valuable knowledge in the business world through first-hand experience.

The business education department endeavors to develop skills, attitudes, and understandings that are essential for the successful direction of day-to-day business operations. The objectives are directed toward non-vocational education and vocational competency.

Typing

Health and P. E.

This program strives to develop physical fitness and mental alertness through varied aspects of health and activities.

The heart of a school is its library, for it is there that books - the essential for knowledge - are ours for the seeking.

Library

Home Economics

The homemaking department provides a program of organized experiences designed to help individuals in the solution of their family living problems in the home, in the school, and in the community, and to assist them in assuming responsibilities of homemaking.

The industrial arts program concentrates its efforts on providing opportunities for the development of simple tool skills. Basically, it is the foundation and background upon which later more specific trade and industrial education can be built.

Industrial Arts

Chorus

The music department at Lumberton High affords an opportunity for students who are interested in singing and band to participate. Members of the band and choral groups look forward to increasing opportunities in the future as their place in school life develops and as they continue to represent the school to the outside public.

Band

Algebra

The mathematics department offers courses which are designed to fit the needs of each individual student. All of the courses help students to think quantitatively and to reason logically. There are advanced courses for those who are preparing for careers in mathematics and relative fields. Ultimately, the chief object is to cause the student to discover the aesthetic as well as the practical values and benefits of mathematics.

Plane Geometry

U. S. History

The ultimate objective of the social studies department is to help the student to see the world about him as a place in which he lives and works, and to help him to assume responsibility for making it a better place in which to live.

To prepare students for a creative and responsible readiness for the democratic way of life is the primary purpose of the language arts program.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Lumberton High School, being of sound (and brilliant) minds and sober bodies, and foreseeing our departure from this way of life, which we have known for four years, into the unknown, (and realizing that we can't take it with us), do hereby bequeath, by means of this our last will and testament these things:

I, Linda Allen will to Patsy Musselwhite and Anna Faye Walters the ability to get along with Mr. Merritt as well as I have because they surely need it!

I, John Ayers, do hereby will and bequeath to next year's Freshman Class editor, two sweaters and a bottle of aspirin.

I, Carol Bagby, will to the teachers of L.H.S. the patience and fortitude to take another member of the clan, namely my sister Linda, for three more years. Put away your tranquillizers. She's really not like me. In fact she's WORSE!!!

I, Dick Barnes, will to my cousin Tommy Phelps my ability to ask the wrong questions at the wrong times and in the wrong classes; and to my sisters, Mary Anne and Martha Barnes, the happy days I've had here.

I, Robert Barfield, will to all of my followers the ability to be good "disciples."

I, Betty Baxley, will to "Birdie" Hinnant and "Wiggles" Ray all my bubble gum and "wordy dirds."

I, Beverly Biggs, will to the National Honor Society twenty-one square feet of my recreation room floor.

I, Rita Lee Bowman, will to Smoot Cranfield my bicycling ability, in the hopes that he will give Mark plenty of exercise next year.

I, Carey Branch, will my safe driving habits to Steve Kinlaw.

I, Horace Britt, will my driving ability to Billy York.

I, Ikey Bullard, will my ability to drive to all sixteen year olds.

I, Joyce Ann Burney, will my end position on the L.H.S. cheering squad to anyone short enough to get in it.

I, Sylvia Caine, will my "clips" to Joyce and Beth because they badly need them.

I, Betty Ann Davis, will my love for the library to my sister, Marie, in hopes that she will enjoy being a library assistant as much as I have.

I, Janice Davis, will to Miss Roberts, one "poofy" hair-do.

I, Peggy Ann Davis, will my grades in English 4 to any rising senior who is crazy or foolish enough to accept them.

I, Peggy Ann Edens, will to Bev Bauer my eye-brow pencil to use for Minny Pearl's freckles, so that she may still walk the halls of L.H.S. occasionally.

I, Ben Floyd, will my position as night watchman of Tanglewood School to Dr. Carroll because I know that he will do a good job.

I, Beth Flower, will to "Lou" one house trailer, 'cause we think that little green Falcon has just about had it.

I, Tony Freeman, will my dirty football socks to Mackie McIntyre.

I, James Glisson, hereby will my ability to talk in Mrs. Frazier's study hall without saying anything to Bobby McKee.

I, Glenn Godwin, will my friendship with Ikey to someone who wants to get wrecked, shot, or drowned.

I, Brenda Hanchey, will my job at the Riverside Theatre to some lucky person who is ticket crazy.

I, Bobby Lou Haney, will, as soon as I graduate, my fencing ability to Buzz Hardin, who is in dire need of another extracurricular activity.

I, Jimmy Harrington, can't will anything except my nickname "Pelo," but, nobody would want it anyway and if they did, thery are too insane to have it.

I, Sandra Harris, will to anyone who wants them, my excuses when getting home about two hours late.

I, Janell Hayes, will the position I have acquired during my high school years to anyone crazy enough to accept it.

I, Betty Hill, will all the sore throats, wet blouses, and wet stringy hair to B. B., in the hopes that she might cope with them better than I could or did.

I, Eleanor Hunter, will not will because of "old" Hill, who willed what I wanted to will.

I, Doug Hobbs, will to a certain sophomore girl the name "Tiger," in hopes that she can live up to it.

I, Betty Carol Huggins, will to my sister, Francis, all of the fun and hard work of being a library assistant.

I, Phillip Hutaff, will my parking place in front of the trash truck to anyone who will take it.

I, Gail Jones Ivey, will the good times I have had at Lumberton High School to my brother, Gerald Jones.

I, Gobby Jacogs, will my ability to make excuses to Milton Townsend who has run out of them.

I, Jay Jolly, will my back seat shot-gun in Ikey's car to any jerk who is crazy enough to ride with him.

I, Barbara Jones, will my "yankee" accent to Kip Page, who, because he enjoyed mine so much, should have one of his own.

I, Kenny Lawson, will to Tommy Thompson my football shoes, in hopes that he will have them fixed.

I, Edward Lee, will Truman's ability to speak French to Dennis O'Zuinn.

I, Rusty Livermore, being of sound body and feeble and unstable mind, having nothing to leave, will leave.

I, Frand McKeithan, will to Miss Hamilton that new word "ain't," so that her vocabulary will not only be complete, but also up-to-date.

I, Graham McLean, will my uncanny ability to work solid geometry to Bobby Lou Haney, who will probably need it next year.

I, Louise Mcleod, will one bottle of white shoe polish to the Latin classes in hopes that they can find a better use for it than to make statues of people.

I, Judy McMillan, will a road map from L.H.S. to Appalachian College to anyone who is lucky enough to use it more than I can.

I, Theo H. Mees, pass on what was willed to me by Janis Fink in 1959, the ability to hit the high road, to Jenny Minges and Francis Prevatte. I also will my famous "A-hem-uh" to anyone who can make use of it in some dire need.

I, Jane Monroe, will my talent to do everything wrong to Nancy Adams.

I, Sandy Monroe, will to Jerry Powers my ability to get out of high school, in hopes that he will use it better than I did.

I, Joy Newberry, will to my brother my ability to speak French.

I, Gary Nobles, will my school bus to anyone who is fool enough to take it. Good luck!

I, Carolyn Perkins, will my inability to think of a will to all juniors who roam the halls of L.H.S.

I, Donna Peterson, will my seat in chorus to anyone crazy enough to take it. NO OFFENSE, MR. PRESSLEY!

I, Jimmy Pittman, will to Ikey Bullard my watch crystal which he willfully crushed on September 16, 1961, on 301-A about two miles north of Lumberton.

I, Alma Salmon, will to Jimmy Walters, all my good times during high school.
I, Lloyd Scott, will to Johnny Davis my parking place in front of the high school.

I, Jack Simpson, will my ability to hit golf balls out of bounds to Malcolm McGrath.

I, Betty Lou Spivey, will and bequeath nothing to nobody, because I need all I have.
I, Judy Stubbs, will to Ronnie Capps, one pitchfork to go with his two horns.
I, Bunny Townsend, willingly leave 37 pounds that I have lost to anyone who can use them.
I, Elizabeth Tyner, will my English grades (!!) to anybody foolish enough to want them.
I, Martha Walden, will my desiccated caterpillar, snake intestines, pig heart, mouse skeleton, and "alcoholed" owl eye to all future biologists! Good luck!!
I, Ronnie Walters, will anything I have to anyone who is stupid enough to accept it.
I, Charles Warwick, will not!
I, Vivian Watkins, will my desire to increase my knowledge of the world around me to my brother, Tommy.

Class History

Many long years ago sixty-two small girls and fifty-seven smaller boys said good-bye to babyhood and went into the world to begin the first big chapter in their book of life. Today these same girls and boys, no longer very small, are almost ready to close this chapter. All too soon for most, June will come, bringing the end of our safe, secure, school days; for we are now seniors. But before we write the final words, let us take a peek at those years which have flown so swiftly.

My, how different school was! We had always held the center of our stage and we weren't a bit sure we liked sharing it. We spent many tearful mornings cursing cruel fate and gnashing our teeth. But to no avail! When we eventually decided there was no escape, we set about learning to get along with these intruders, and especially that one called teacher.

Just as we became fairly reconciled to this giant playroom, somebody stabbed us in the back! They expected us to WORK! More gnashed teeth. However, we discovered this to be the secret of much praise, and were soon happily reading, "Come, Jack, come; run, Jane, run," to any long-suffering adult we could corner.

Succeeding years brought many experiences, both wonderful and wretched. We learned (?) to read, write (henscratch!), do 'rithmetic, and to think. We worked hard (everyone proclaimed lunch and recess favorite subjects) and played hard. For our firm foundation we will ever be grateful!

Can we ever forget junior high? We were too grown-up to be children and too childish to be grown-up. Experiencing every growing pain imaginable, we wanted only to be in high school.

Finally IT came. Who can enumerate all the things we've shared within L.H.S.'s hallowed halls? We have had opportunity for a quality education under some of the finest teachers anywhere. We have had MANY opportunities for fun and fellowship. We have fallen in and out of love, survived crushing blows, and enjoyed soaring triumphs - all together. Now the end approaches and soon we will leave Lumberton High forever.

Yes, we close this chapter, but the book is not ended. Life stretches before us. When school days are over, adulthood is just beginning. We have completed only a fraction of the book; the rest must not be wasted! Let us look back, thank these years for all they have given us, then - turn the page, leaving the past sealed in memory, and look ahead - to a new chapter and a new beginning!

Carol Bagby, Historian

Poem

The waves are splashing on the shore.
Resignedly and obediently do they give of their strength
For they seem to perceive their mission and merely seek fulfillment.
Never do they hesitate to ponder their lot.
A long journey has brought them to their destination
And it is with courage and determination that they lash upon the sandy surf.
Late in the night their constant toil is heard.
Storm and tempest fail to impede their action.
Instead, they gain momentum with each new trial,
Unwilling to let objects of circumstance suppress them.
To ask them why is to question the song of a bird, the honey of bees,
the light of the stars.

Oh, how we might look at these multitudinous waves and see ourselves;
Individuals enveloped with stoic and invincible majesty;
Individuals who have long traveled life's somber path
but yet remain resilient, invulnerable;
Individuals who never fret to give of their dearest possessions--
Youth, clearness of thought, ambition--to an indifferent world;
Individuals who never stop to ask why--instead press hungrily,
Yearningly to greater heights and glory;
Individuals who keep their eyes heavenward,
and humbly ask for courage and determination;
Individuals who fall prostrate at the Master's feet and give thanks,
When their destination, at last, has been reached.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club consists of boys and girls who have monogrammed in sports, cheerleading, or managing a team at Lumberton High School. They sold programs at all five home football games, as a money-making project.

The Club has been under the leadership of: Jay Jolly, President; H. L. Robinson, Vice President; Nancy Walton, Secretary; Beverly Bauer, Treasurer; Edwin Britt, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Penny Bunch Tri-Hi-Y

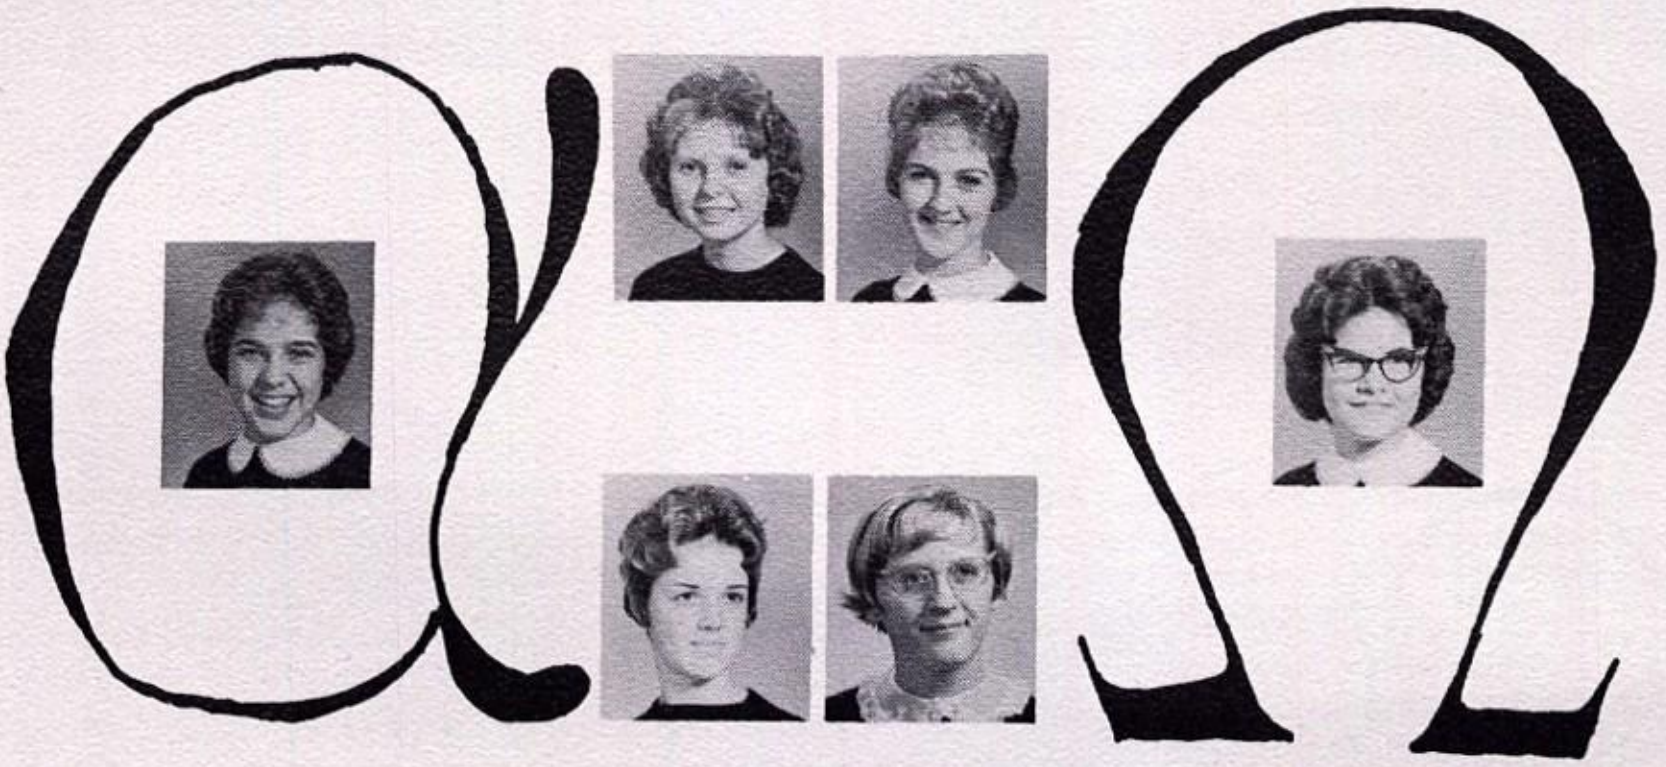
Under the capable leadership of Betty Sue Parmell, president; Merry Chambers, vice president; Rose Ann Shaw, secretary; Janis Davis, treasurer; and Betty Baxley, sgt.-at-arms; the Penny Bunch Tri-Hi-Y has been active in both social and service activities.

During the course of the school year a powder-puff football game was held, a float was entered in the Homecoming Parade, a needy family was helped at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and several dances were sponsored. In the spring the annual Shamrock Dance was held and the new Shamrock Queen was crowned.



The Alpha Omega Tri-Hi-Y under the leadership of Meg Harrington, President; Barbara Nan Pittman, Vice President; Drina Walters, Secretary; Sandra Amerson, Treasurer; Diane Jones, Sgt.-at-Arms; Dianne McEwen, Chaplain, had a great year. The club, with the largest number of members ever (78) was very active. A needy family was helped at Thanksgiving and Christmas; a powder-puff football game was played and several dances and parties including an annual twirp dance were held.

Key Club

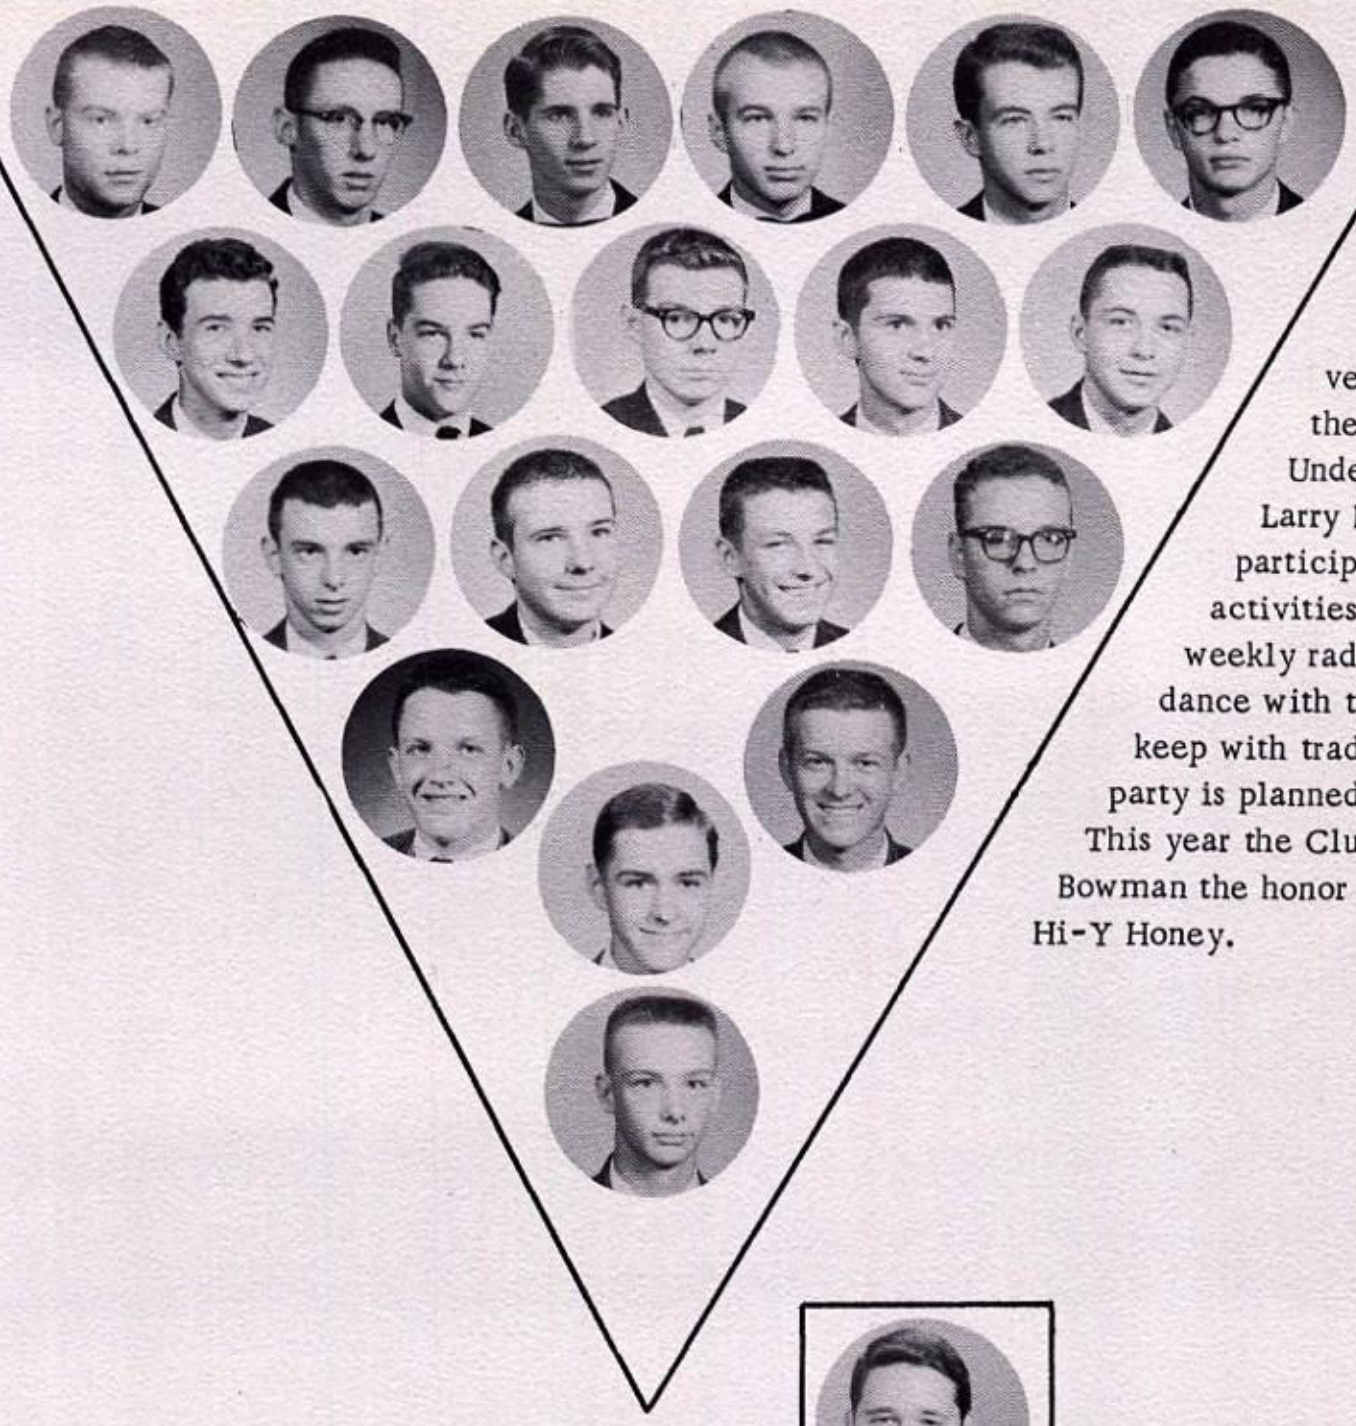
This year the Key Club sponsored several after-game dances as well as a private dance with the Hi-Y during the Thanksgiving holidays. Needy families were helped at Christmas. The Key Club helped again this year with the Kiwanis Club Talent Show, the proceeds going to help needy children. The Key Club-Hi-Y basketball game was held. The Key Club radio program was held throughout the school year at WTSB. The Key Club received a certificate of merit for its interest in district affairs. The officers for this year have been Ben Floyd, president; John Shepherd, vice president; Jack Simpson, secretary; Dennis Sugar, treasurer; Tommy Thompson, sgt.-at-arms; Mr. Jimmy Sanderford, Advisor; Key Club Sweetheart, Beverly Bauer.



The school year of 1961-62 proved to be very successful for the Lumberton Hi-Y. Under the leadership of Larry Parsons, the Hi-Y participated in numerous activities ranging from a weekly radio show to a joint dance with the Key Club. To keep with tradition a beach party is planned for early spring. This year the Club gave Rita Bowman the honor of being their Hi-Y Honey.

In the spring a Latin Banquet was held, and the Latin I students were sold as slaves to the Latin II students. The Junior Classical League Convention in Chapel Hill was attended by the Latin students in March. Last August two representatives attended the National Junior Classical League Convention in Bloomington, Indiana. Several students plan to attend in Montana this summer.

The F.T.A. was headed this year by Peggy Ann Edens, president; Eleanor Hunter, vice president; Jane Monroe, secretary; Beth Fowler, treasurer; Betty Baxley, chaplain; Mrs. Underwood, advisor.

The F.T.A. officers held a tea for the teachers before school started, and everyone seemed to enjoy this. Each member was assigned a teacher to help throughout the year.

The Lumberton chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, under the leadership of Jane Monroe, president; Wanda Ray, vice president; Joyce Ann Burney, secretary; Barbara Sessoms, parliamentarian; and Mary Florence, historian; has carried out a full schedule of activities for this school year. For each month an interesting program was planned. Some of these activities included a Valentine dance, an Easter egg hunt for needy children, an Honorable Senior month, and a Maid Sale. Through these programs the Future Homemakers of America tried to improve their purposes of worthy home, community, and family membership.

L. H. S. Band

The Lumberton High School Band under the direction of Mr. Robert Crumpler has really been busy this year. They performed at most of the football games, marched in several parades, and represented Lumberton during Band Day at the University of North Carolina.

The band has been represented by the following officers: Winnie Buchanan, Captain; Trina Pittman, senior representative; Mackie McIntyre, junior representative; Albert Stephenson, sophomore representative; Linda Atkinson, freshman representative; Johnny Farmer, junior-high representative; and Llewlee Livermore as recording secretary.

This year the L. H. S. Cheerleaders have been very active. They had fun cheering at both the football and basketball games and staging weekly pep rallys to boost the morale of students and team players and promoting school spirit. The Cheerleaders helped decorate and plan the annual Homecoming Dance with the theme "Hail To The Varsity"! After the football season was over the cheerleaders honored the senior players with a chapel program. All the cheerleaders agree this has been a great year and have had a great time.

Distributive Education Club

The Distributive Education Club is composed of students who are in the Distributive Education class. The students are dismissed from school after lunch each day to work downtown, and in this way, gain occupational experience. Each year the club elects representatives to attend the District and State Distributive Education Conventions.

Debate Club

President: HOWARD SESSOMS
Vice President: JOHN AYERS
Treasurer: ERNIE BLAKE
Secretary: SANDRA PITTMAN

The chief function of the Debate Club is to prepare for and to debate in the triangles with Hamlet and Rockingham. Practice debates are held so that members may gain experience in the art of debating. This year, in addition to preparing for the debates, the club has adopted a new constitution.

Journalism Club

This year the Journalism Club has been pushed to the press by Peggy Ann Edens, editor; and Rose Ann Shaw, co-editor.

The Journalism members have been quite busy pounding the typewriter keys this year. Every week their column, "High-Life, High-Lites," has appeared in the LUMBERTON POST. Also several very interesting editions of the TREASURER CHEST, our school paper, have been published

A limited number of sophomores, juniors, and seniors compose this club. It is their job to let everyone in on the secrets of L.H.S.

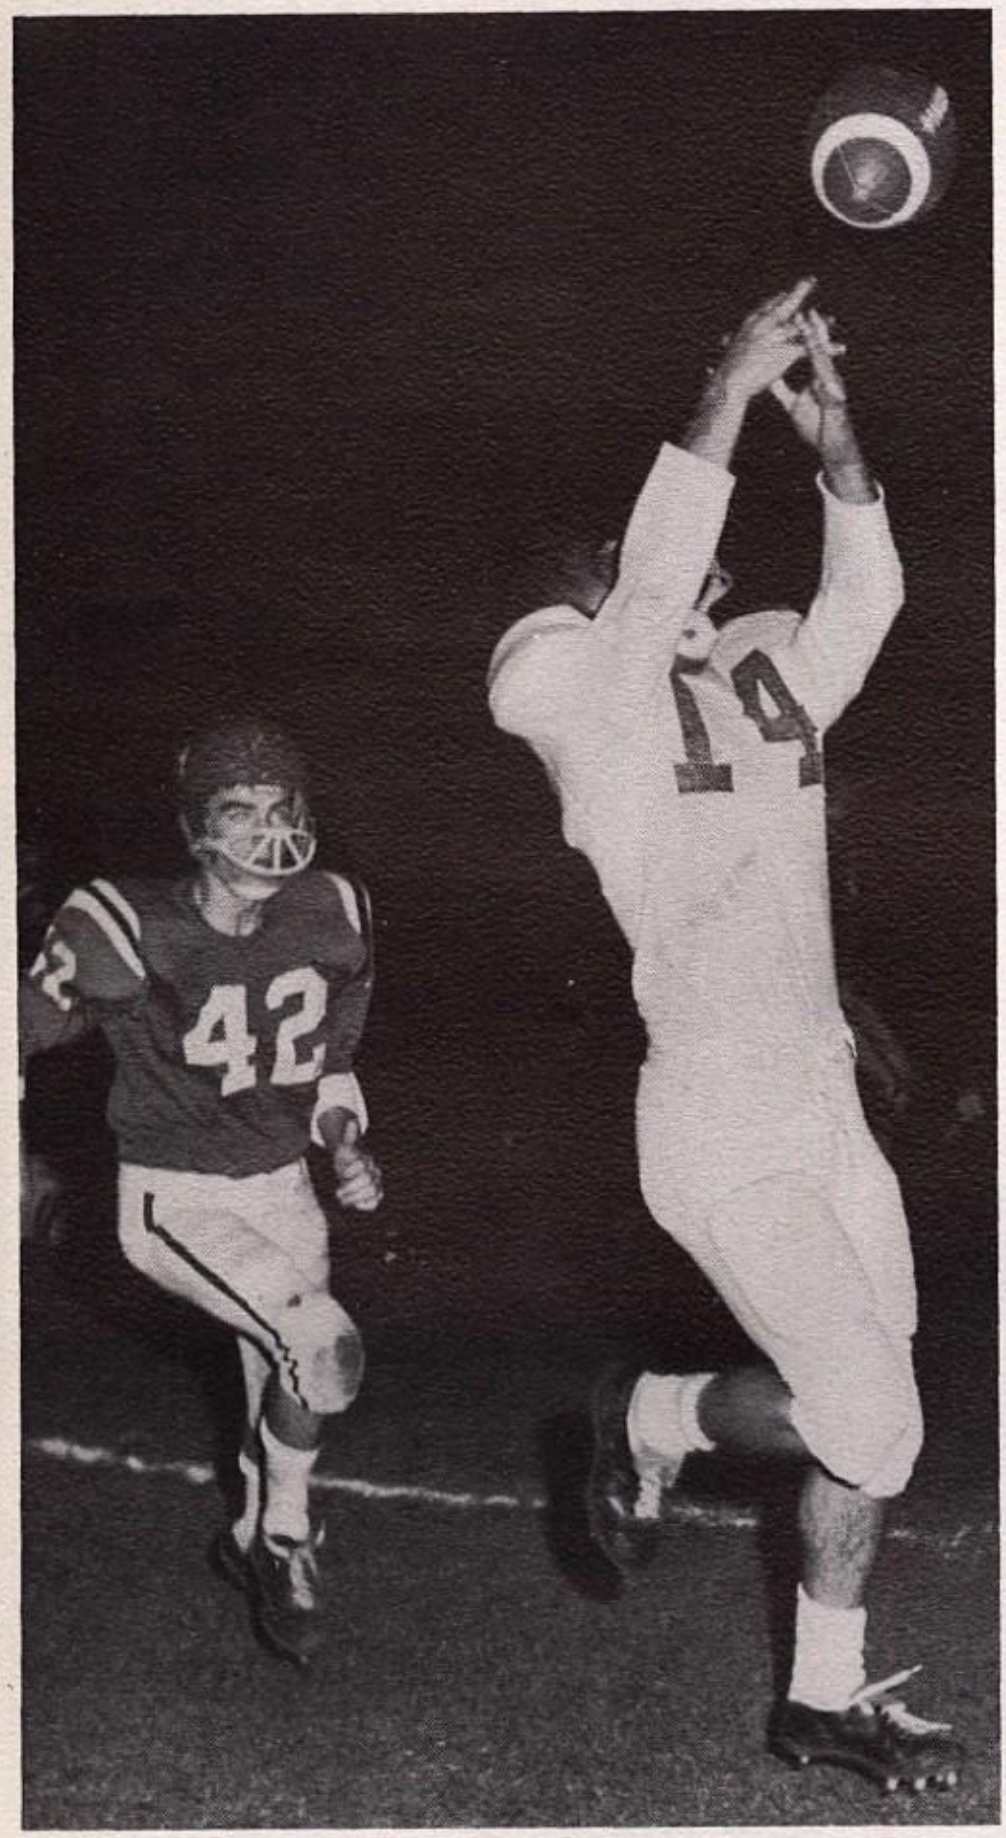
Oooph!!!



Butterfingers!!!

With hard work, sweat, toil, and sheer desire, the Lumberton Pirates finished the season with a 5-4-1 record, the best in six years. This year's squad, the smallest in the history of L.H.S., was plagued by injuries and boils from the very beginning of the season and should be congratulated for their fine record in the face of such difficulties. To coaches Alton Brooks and Finley Read we extend our utmost congratulations for a job well done.

Gonna pat him on the back, Tony?

With admiration and respect we dedicate this page of the 1961-62 PIRATEER to coaches Alton Brooks, Finley Reed, and Ivey Bolton. Their loyalty and devotion has been an example to us all.

Pirateer Farewell E.K.

The book is finished and the year draws to a close. Ahead lies graduation, dances, summer vacation, summer jobs, and for many the plans and preparation for higher learning and a college education. The '62 Pirateer Staff has sought to create a book which would in a special way reflect Lumberton 1962. As the halls grow dim and the classrooms quiet, we hope this book will bring back the memories of this year and hold this living school forever in your memory.

Carolyn,
I have enjoyed knowing you and being in classes with you. You have a wonderful personality. Stay that way.
Best of luck always.

It has been a pleasure knowing you this year. The best of luck to a wonderful girl.

Carolyn,

It has really been a pleasure knowing you these past years. I have especially enjoyed our "study hall." We have certainly had a good time. You are one of the sweetest persons I know and have one of the best personalities I have ever seen. Just keep smiling (or should I say laughing) and stay the same sweet person you are now. Good luck always and may all the happiness in the world be yours....

A friend,
Wanda Cook

Carolyn,

I will never be able to explain what our friendship has meant to me. You are a wonderful who can have fun all of the time. I will never forget all of the good times we have had together. Don't forget our little talks that have helped both of us. That is, me anyway. I hope that we can always be friends. Carolyn, I hope you have the best in life and I know that you will for you have the personality to do it with. May God bless you always. Good luck and be good to Don.

A friend,
Carolyn Seeley

Carolyn,

First of all I need more space, second of all another pen. Man, if I had it to do all over again, I wouldn't. Boys, are wonderful, sweet, mean, hateful, darling, heavenly & most anything else. But, what would we do without them? We'd live in peace, that's what we'd do. In a few years you'll be Mrs. — and I'll be Mrs. Cook. We'll be older & wiser with more worries than we've ever had. I'll miss talking to you about Bill. I just want to say may God bless you & me and all of the rest of our crazy souls. I'm not going to forget you because of the wonderful ways in which you've helped me. Man, I needed it. Lots of Luck.
